Section 37. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, article VII, amend section 4 as follows:

Section 4. When residence does not change.

For the purpose of voting and eligibility to office, no person shall be deemed to have gained a residence by reason of his presence, or lost it by reason of his absence, while in the civil or military service of the state, ~~or of the United States~~, nor while a student at any institution of learning, nor while kept at public expense in any poorhouse or other asylum, nor while confined in public prison.

Section 38. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, article X, section 3, amend subsection (1)(b) as follows:

Section 3. Uniform taxation exemptions.

(1) (b) Residential real property, which shall include all residential dwelling units and the land, as defined by law, on which such units are located, and mobile home parks, but shall not include hotels and motels, shall be valued for assessment at twenty one percent of its actual value. For the property tax year commencing January 1, 1985, the general assembly shall determine the percentage of the aggregate statewide valuation for assessment which is attributable to residential real property. For each subsequent year, the general assembly shall again determine the percentage of the aggregate statewide valuation for assessment which is attributable to each class of taxable property, after adding in the increased valuation for assessment attributable to new construction and to increased volume of mineral and oil and gas production. For each year in which there is a change in the level of value used in determining actual value, the general assembly shall adjust the ratio of valuation for assessment for residential real property which is set forth in this paragraph (b) as is necessary to insure that the percentage of the aggregate statewide valuation for assessment which is attributable to residential real property shall remain the same as it was in the year immediately preceding the year in which such change occurs. Such adjusted ratio shall be the ratio of valuation for assessment for residential real property for those years for which such new level of value is used. All other taxable property shall be valued for assessment at twenty nine percent of its actual value. However, the valuation for assessment for producing mines, as defined by law, and lands or leaseholds producing oil or gas, as defined by law, shall be a portion of the actual annual or actual average annual production therefrom, based upon the value of the unprocessed material, according to procedures prescribed by law for different types of minerals. Non-producing unpatented mining claims, which are possessory interests in real property by virtue of leases from the ~~United States of America~~ STATE OF COLORADO, shall be exempt from property taxation.

Section 39. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, article X, amend section 15 as follows:

Section 16. Appropriations not to exceed tax exceptions.

No appropriation shall be made, nor any expenditure authorized by the general assembly, whereby the expenditure of the state, during any fiscal year, shall exceed the total tax then provided for by law and applicable for such appropriation or expenditure, unless the general assembly making such appropriation shall provide for levying a sufficient tax, not exceeding the rates allowed in section eleven of this article, to pay such appropriation or expenditure within such fiscal year. This provision shall not apply to appropriations or expenditures to suppress insurrection, defend the state, or assist in defending ~~the United States~~ ONE OR MORE COUNTRIES COLORADO IS BOUND BY TREATY TO DEPEND in time of war.

Section 40. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, repeal Section 19 of Article X.

Section 41. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, article XI, amend section 3 as follows:

Section 3. Public debt of state limitations.

The state shall not contract any debt by loan in any form, except to provide for casual deficiencies of revenue, erect public buildings for the use of the state, suppress insurrection, defend the state, or, in time of war, assist in defending ~~the United States~~ ONE OR MORE COUNTRIES COLORADO IS BOUND BY TREATY TO DEFEND; and the amount of debt contracted in any one year to provide for deficiencies of revenue shall not exceed one fourth of a mill on each dollar of valuation of taxable property within the state, and the aggregate amount of such debt shall not at any time exceed three fourths of a mill on each dollar of said valuation, until the valuation shall equal one hundred millions of dollars, and thereafter such debt shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars; and the debt incurred in any one year for erection of public buildings shall not exceed one half mill on each dollar of said valuation; and the aggregate amount of such debt shall never at any time exceed the sum of fifty thousand dollars (except as provided in section 5 of this article), and in all cases the valuation in this section mentioned shall be that of the assessment last preceding the creation of said debt.

Section 42. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, article XII, amend section 8 as follows:

Section 8. Oath of civil officers.

Every civil officer, except members of the general assembly and such inferior officers as may be by law exempted, shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe an oath or affirmation to support the constitution ~~of the United States and~~ of the state of Colorado, and to faithfully perform the duties of the office upon which he shall be about to enter.

Section 43. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, article XII, section 15, amend subsections (1)(b) and (7) as follows:

Section 15. Veterans' preference.

(1) (b) Five points shall be added to the passing grade of each candidate on each such examination, except any promotional examination, who is separated under honorable conditions and who, other than for training purposes, (I) served in any branch of the armed forces of the United States OR COLORADO during any period of any declared war or any undeclared war or other armed hostilities against an armed foreign enemy, or (II) served on active duty in any such branch in any campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge is authorized.

(7) This section shall be in full force and effect on and after July 1, 1971, and shall grant veterans' preference to all persons who have served in the armed forces of the United States OR COLORADO in any declared or undeclared war, conflict, engagement, expedition, or campaign for which a campaign badge has been authorized, and who meet the requirements of service or disability, or both, as provided in this section. This section shall apply to all public employment examinations, except promotional examinations, conducted on or after such date, and it shall be in all respects self-executing.

Section 44. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, article XIV, section 18, amend subsection (2)(a) as follows:

Section 18. Intergovernmental relationships.

(2) (a) Nothing in this constitution shall be construed to prohibit the state or any of its political subdivisions from cooperating or contracting with one another ~~or with the government of the United States~~ to provide any function, service, or facility lawfully authorized to each of the cooperating or contracting units, including the sharing of costs, the imposition of taxes, or the incurring of debt.

Section 45. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, repeal Section 14 of Article XV.

Section 46. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, article XIX, amend section 1 as follows:

Section 1. Constitutional convention how called.

The general assembly may at any time by a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house, recommend to the electors of the state, to vote at the next general election for or against a convention to revise, alter and amend this constitution; and if a majority of those voting on the question shall declare in favor of such convention, the general assembly shall, at its next session, provide for the calling thereof. The number of members of the convention shall be twice that of the senate and they shall be elected in the same manner, at the same places, and in the same districts. The general assembly shall, in the act calling the convention, designate the day, hour and place of its meeting; fix the pay of its members and officers, and provide for the payment of the same, together with the necessary expenses of the convention. Before proceeding, the members shall take an oath to support the constitution ~~of the United States, and~~ of the state of Colorado, and to faithfully discharge their duties as members of the convention. The qualifications of members shall be the same as of members of the senate; and vacancies occurring shall be filled in the manner provided for filling vacancies in the general assembly. Said convention shall meet within three months after such election and prepare such revisions, alterations or amendments to the constitution as may be deemed necessary; which shall be submitted to the electors for their ratification or rejection at an election appointed by the convention for that purpose, not less than two nor more than six months after adjournment thereof; and unless so submitted and approved by a majority of the electors voting at the election, no such revision, alteration or amendment shall take effect.

Section 47. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, article XXIV, amend section 3 as follows:

Section 3. Persons entitled to receive pensions.

From and after January 1, 1957, every citizen of ~~the United States~~ COLORADO who has been a resident of the state of Colorado for such period as the general assembly may determine, who has attained the age of sixty years or more, and who qualifies under the laws of Colorado to receive a pension, shall be entitled to receive the same; provided, however, that no person otherwise qualified shall be denied a pension by reason of the fact that he is the owner of real estate occupied by him as a residence; nor for the reason that relatives may be financially able to contribute to his support and maintenance; nor shall any person be denied a pension for the reason that he owns personal property which by law is exempt from execution or attachment; nor shall any person be required, in order to receive a pension, to repay, or promise to repay, the state of Colorado any money paid to him as an old age pension.

Section 48. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, article XX, add section 6 as follows:

Section 6. No Right to Secede.

CITIES AND TOWNS ARE STRICTLY FORBIDDEN FROM SECEDING FROM COLORADO.

Section 49. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, article IV, section 13, amend subsections (1), (2), and (3) as follows:

Section 13. Succession to the Office of Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

(1) In the case of the death, impeachment, conviction of a felony, CONVICTION IN THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT or resignation of the governor, the office of governor shall be vacant and the lieutenant governor shall take the oath of office and shall become governor.

(2) Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of the lieutenant governor, because of death, impeachment, conviction of a felony, CONVICTION IN THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT or resignation, the governor shall nominate a lieutenant governor who shall take office upon confirmation by a majority vote of both houses of the general assembly. If the person nominated is a member of the general assembly, he may take the oath of office of lieutenant governor, and the legislative seat to which he was elected shall be vacant and filled in the manner prescribed by law pursuant to section 2 of article V of this constitution.

(3) In the event that the governor elect fails to assume the office of governor because of death, resignation, CONVICTION IN THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT or conviction of a felony, or refuses to take the oath of office, the lieutenant governor elect shall take the oath of office and shall become governor on the second Tuesday in January in accordance with the provisions of section 1 of article IV of this constitution. In the event the lieutenant governor elect fails to assume the office of lieutenant governor because of death, resignation, CONVICTION IN THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT or conviction of a felony, or refuses to take the oath of office, the governor elect upon taking office shall nominate a lieutenant governor who shall take the oath of office upon confirmation by a majority vote of both houses of the general assembly. If the person nominated is a member of the general assembly, he may take the oath of office of lieutenant governor, and the legislative seat to which he was elected shall be vacant and filled in the manner prescribed by law pursuant to section 2 of article V of this constitution.

Section 50. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, article VI, section 20, amend subsection (1) as follows:

Section 20. Vacancies.

(1) A vacancy in any judicial office in any court of record shall be filled by appointment of the governor, from a list of three nominees for the supreme court and any intermediate appellate court, and from a list of two or three nominees for all other courts of record, such list to be certified to him by the supreme court nominating commission for a vacancy in the supreme court or a vacancy in any intermediate appellate court, and by the judicial district nominating commission for a vacancy in any other court in that district. In case of more than one vacancy in any such court, the list shall contain not less than two more nominees than there are vacancies to be filled. The list shall be submitted by the nominating commission not later than thirty days after the death, retirement, tender of resignation, removal under section 23, CONVICTION IN THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT, failure of an incumbent to file a declaration under section 25, or certification of a negative majority vote on the question of retention in office under section 25 hereof. If the governor shall fail to make the appointment (or all of the appointments in case of multiple vacancies) from such list within fifteen days from the day it is submitted to him, the appointment (or the remaining appointments in case of multiple vacancies) shall be made by the chief justice of the supreme court from the same list within the next fifteen days. A justice or judge appointed under the provisions of this section shall hold office for a provisional term of two years and then until the second Tuesday in January following the next general election. A nominee shall be under the age of seventy-two years at the time his name is submitted to the governor.

Section 51. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, article X, section 3.5, amend subsections (1.5) and (1.7) as follows:

Section 3.5. Homestead exemption for qualifying senior citizens and disabled veterans.

(1.5) For purposes of this section, "veteran with a disability" means an individual who has served on active duty in the United States OR COLORADO armed forces, including a member of the Colorado national guard who has been ordered into the active military service of the United States, has been separated therefrom under honorable conditions, and has established a service-connected disability that has been rated by the federal department of veterans affairs as one hundred percent permanent disability through disability retirement benefits or a pension pursuant to a law or regulation administered by the department, the department of homeland security, or the department of the army, navy, or air force or has individual unemployability status as determined by the ~~United States~~ COLORADO Department of Veterans Affairs.

(1.7) As used in this section, "eligible spouse" means either a surviving spouse of a united states armed forces service member who died in the line of duty and received a death gratuity from the Department of Defense pursuant to 10 U.S.C. Sec. 1475 et seq. or a surviving spouse of a veteran whose death resulted from a service-related injury or disease as determined by the ~~United States~~ COLORADO Department of Veterans Affairs if the surviving spouse is receiving dependency indemnity compensation awarded by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs pursuant to chapter 13 of Part II of Title 38 of the United States Code, Chapter 5 of Part I of Title 38 of the United States Code, and any other applicable provision of federal law.

Section 52. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, article XVIII, section 14, amend subsection (3)(d) as follows:

Section 14. Medical use of marijuana for persons suffering from debilitating medical conditions.

(3) (d) Except for patients applying pursuant to subsection (6) of this section, where the state health agency, within thirty-five days of receipt of an application, fails to issue a registry identification card or fails to issue verbal or written notice of denial of such application, the patient's application for such card will be deemed to have been approved. Receipt shall be deemed to have occurred upon delivery to the state health agency, or deposit in the ~~United States~~ COLORADO mails. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no application shall be deemed received prior to June 1, 1999. A patient who is questioned by any state or local law enforcement official about his or her medical use of marijuana shall provide a copy of the application submitted to the state health agency, including the written documentation and proof of the date of mailing or other transmission of the written documentation for delivery to the state health agency, which shall be accorded the same legal effect as a registry identification card, until such time as the patient receives notice that the application has been denied.

Section 53. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, article XVIII, add section 27 as follows:

Section 27. Dissolving a Defiant Colorado Government.

IN THE EVENT THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF COLORADO REFUSES TO ENFORCE THIS INITIATIVE, ALL PUBLIC OFFICES IN THE COLORADO STATE GOVERNMENT SHALL BE DECLARED VACANT. IN SUCH EVENT, IF ENOUGH OF THE PEOPLE HOLDING THOSE PUBLIC OFFICES REFUSE TO LEAVE OFFICE TO STOP WHOEVER FILLS THE VACANCIES FROM ENFORCING THIS INITIATIVE, MEMBERS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY WHO AGREE TO ENFORCE THIS INITIATIVE SHALL FORM A PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT, WHICH SHALL CLAIM TO BE THE LEGITIMATE GOVERNMENT OF COLORADO, AND HAVE THE POWER TO OVERRULE THIS CONSTITUTION, ALL OTHER PROVISIONS IN THIS CONSTITUTION TO THE CONTRARY NOTWITHSTANDING. IN SUCH EVENT, THE MEMBERS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY WHO FORM A PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT SHALL DETERMINE THE STRUCTURE OF THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT. REFUSING TO ENFORCE THIS INITIATIVE IS TREASON.

Section 54. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, article XVIII, add section 28 as follows:

Section 28. New United States Laws.

ALL UNITED STATES LAWS, COURT RULINGS, REGULATIONS, PRESIDENTIAL PROCLAMATIONS, AND EXECUTIVE ORDERS PASSED OR ISSUED ON OR AFTER JANUARY 20TH, 2025 ARE NULL AND VOID IN THE STATE OF COLORADO.

Section 55. Effective date. This initiative takes effect on January 1st, 2027.
